9/11 CULTURAL SUMMIT IN NEW YORK

The Lower Manhattan Cultural Council has organized "What Comes After: Cities, Art and Recovery," Sept. 8-11, 2005, a "cultural summit" featuring over 60 artists, architects and intellectuals marking the fourth anniversary weekend of 9/11. Six roundtable discussions are slated for the Tribeca Performing Arts Center at the Borough of Manhattan Community College on Chambers Street; exhibitions include "book" at 15 Nassau in the Financial District, "After Effects" at the Tribeca Performing Arts Center, and artist Chang-Jin Lee's "Homeland Security Garden" at the World Financial Center in Battery Park City. Other events include a performance by Diamanda Galás at Pace University by City Hall and a night of political cabaret at Joe's Pub on Lafayette Street. For details, see www.lmcc.net/recovery

The two events, by the way, should also stand as the beginning of a strong art-world reproach to the disgraceful anti-art posturing of New York Republicans in the debate over the Ground Zero memorial see [Artnet News, July 20, 2005].
